

Call for Nominations

The ACS Western Region is pleased to acknowledge and recognize the amazing contributions of our members and partners in the chemical enterprise. The awards will be presented at the 2025 ACS Western Regional Awards dinner to be held on Monday, October 27, 2025 in San Jose, CA.

E. Ann Nalley Award for Volunteer Service to ACS	Regional Award for Excellence in High School Teaching
This award recognizes the volunteer efforts of individuals who have served the ACS, contributing significantly to the goals and objectives of the Society through their regional activities. A nominee must be a member of the American Chemical Society residing in a local section within the Western region. The volunteerism to be recognized may include a variety of activities, including but not limited to the initiation or sponsorship of a singular endeavor or exemplary leadership in the region. Nomination due: August 15, 2025	This award recognizes, and encourages, outstanding teachers of high school chemistry. Nominees should be actively engaged in the teaching of chemistry or a chemical science (grades 9-12) on at least a half-time basis. The award is sponsored by the Division of Chemical Education (CHED). The recognition consists of a cash award, a plaque, and reasonable travel expenses to the 2025 Western Regional Meeting. Nomination due: August 1, 2025
Stanley C. Israel Regional Award for Advancing Diversity in the Chemical Sciences	Partners for Progress and Prosperity (P3) Western Region Award
This award is presented to individuals or organizations that have advanced diversity in the chemical sciences and significantly stimulated or fostered activities that promote inclusiveness within the region. The award consists of a medal and a $1,000 grant to support and further the activities for which the award was made. It also includes funding to cover the recipient's travel expenses to attend the 2025 Western Regional Meeting. Nomination due: August 1, 2025	This award is to encourage and recognize successful and exemplary partnerships between industry, academia, government, small business and/or other organizations, including ACS local sections with other organizations which result in impactful outcomes supporting the chemical enterprise. The award consists of a special medal and certificate of recognition; a cash award of $1000 to be split equally between the partners is to further support the activities being recognized. Nominations due: August 15, 2025
